Jesus

Jesus is the way of life, and life itself. Jesus is a process of life, whereby His teachings were by example. Whereby His teachings, should be learning and practices. Teachings whereby the acquisition of that knowledge, is implemented through thoughts-experiences.

Lip service, praise, and the like, the adjectives of religion, have no substance. A lamp without oil, a candle without a flame.

The complete Word, Bible, teaching, are summed up by these scriptures.

Mat 22:36-40 Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Love is life, Jesus, and God His self. Because love is life, and is the "way." That love begins with every thought from the mind…..period. Every thought-action, performed-fulfilled by the flesh, is the way…..period. It is not a religion of one or two, but a religion of all. A reverence for the Oneness of Creation, because Creation is of One, from One, and only One. Humankind is of that One.

There is no duality in His way of life. No yin and yang, good and evil, plus or minus, light or dark, unity or division. To go as far as saying, right or wrong, because duality is of the world, and not of God.
It's all in understanding how to comprehend and implement Jesus as that way of life.
Any thought process outside of love, is a lack of understanding the process of how life actually works. The degree of, and/or, the lack of faith, and trust for that process.
The work of the soul is an understanding of that process by living in peace, the joy of life in the love of everything. Anything less than that, is a work in progress, which is the working of a soul, through one's own personal eternity, with one's own personal relationship with our Lord that is eternal for all.
